TESTIMONIALS

As a long time believer that memories are stored throughout the body and affect us on a physical and emotional level, I was not surprised to find that Sunny could access the stories living throughout my body. However, Sunny's skill goes far beyond skillful retelling of tales from this life or others. She has the knowledge of the mechanics of the human body and connection to Universal energy flow that allow her to aid one in fully releasing the patterns -- pains, thoughts, feelings -- that no longer serve them. Through insights, conversations, on and off body energy work, and follow up recommendations which can include nutritional support, physical movement, and reflective processing, Sunny has helped me to step more firmly on the path I had been resisting...I knew where I was to go, and now with Sunny's help, I am ready to move forward. If you find yourself with recurrent patterns in your life, or physical pain that 'makes no sense', I recommend a trip to Sunny Wang for insight and relief from what ails you.

Approximately 8 weeks ago I was barely able to walk around with a pair of shoes on. My small toe was so inflamed It felt as though it would explode. Sunny had me lie down, close my eyes and we started working on opening my heart chakra. From there, she told me the problem was in my hip joint, she had me do some movements with breathing, to help me to align my hip, as this was going on, I could actually feel myself healing. As this healing work was taking place, I looked over at Sunny and saw this beautiful white light completely surrounding her. I can only say that I know Sunny was channeling an energy that was higher than Sunny. I was pain free within 48 hours of the healing and am still doing fine. I know and believe that Sunny is here to channel this pure energy of love and light to those of us in need.

Dear Sunny,

I want to first invite you to share my letter with others so they too can see the beauty in your work. My visit with you has given me confidence to go after the things I love in this life. By giving me a glimpse into something that can be great in my life, I am less fearful to press forward and face the challenges ahead.

When I came to your healing session, I was pleasantly surprised by your knack for picking up details about my health through your intuitive gift. My session with you was so much more personalized than other health care visits. You narrowed down my dietary needs to a handful of very specific ingredients to improve my life. I not only researched the information you gave me, but I am also trying them out. I have more energy and feel great.

Health is not strictly physical, and without question you addressed other aspects of my life that gave me greater peace and acceptance. I am indebted to you. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

With greatest thanks,

I bought my house 6 years ago. I love the location. It has a large forested area in the back of property. I can't hear or see my neighbors and it is very quiet. In the house, there had always been a mild odor in the master bedroom. The energy felt bizarre and I didn't feel rested when I was home. First, I tried hiring the Feng Shui consultant from California who was featured in the movie, "The Secret". After her service, the energy was better, but still didn't feel quite right. I met Sunny some months later at a local event. We chatted about various topics and I decided to hire her for a consultation. After spending some time on my property, Sunny discovered 3 significant issues: an energy drain hole in the corner of the living room, an energy vortex in the air 10 feet away from my 2nd floor guest bedroom, and significant emotional residue in the master bedroom. Sunny performed energy clearing on site and suggested that I pick up two crystals to deflect the energy influence from the vortex. She also suggested I find a large vase and fill it up with pebbles to balance the drain hole in the living room. It took me a few weeks to find the proper vase I liked. By the time I filled the vase up half way with pebbles, I immediately felt a shift in the energy. Not long after that, the odor in the bedroom disappeared and has not returned since. Amazing! I was so excited. I highly recommend Sunny Wang's expertise for anyone needing a Master Energy Renovation Specialist like I did. Thank you! Sunny.
